To Whom it May Concern,

Homeward Bound, a transitional housing and comprehensive social services program for homeless and domestic violence families with children, is honored to have been selected as the beneficiary for the 2nd Annual Arizona State Physicians Association Charity Golf Tournament to be held Saturday, May 14, 2011 at the Stone Creek Golf Club.

The Arizona State Physicians Association (ASPA) is one of the oldest and largest Independent Physician Associations in the country whose 2,400 members provide care to more than 1,000,000+ beneficiaries/patients of contracted plans. In addition, ASPA is a community-minded organization committed to supporting struggling families working toward a brighter tomorrow.

The relationship of ASPA and Homeward Bound bringing together our resources will benefit some of our community's most fragile families with this charity golf tournament.

Homeward Bound's mission is to assist families achieve economic independence, secure long-term, safe, affordable housing and break multi-generational cycles of homelessness, welfare and domestic violence. The effectiveness of Homeward Bound is measured by the ability of our families to transition from homelessness to self-sufficiency in approximately 12 to 24 months. The Homeward Bound program has been recognized as a national model designed for families willing to work toward repairing their lives and becoming self-sufficient.

On behalf of the families and children at Homeward Bound, thank you for your generosity and support of the ASPA golf tournament.

Should you have any questions, please contact me at 602-374-8747 or Mark Harris at ASPA 602-265-2524 ext. 219.

Sincerely,

Dana Bailey
